Compassion CORPS

Jonathan M. Wainwright VA Medical Center's Palliative Care Service is recruiting Volunteers for the "Compassion Corps" a support program that offers volunteers the privilege of providing a compassionate presence for veterans with serious illnesses or advanced chronic disease.

Volunteers may provide:

- ◇ companionship,
- ◇ friendship,
- ◇ errands,
- ◇ and respite.

Selected volunteers will be matched with Veterans after successfully completing a 20 hour volunteer training in palliative care. Proposed training to begin on January 25th, every Tuesday and Thursday nights for 4 weeks from 7:00-9:00pm and one Saturday, February 19th, from 8:00-12:00 noon.
